Dear Sirs:

I have just discovered via a phone call to your office today that there is a refund check for my maintenance fee in the amount of $1255 that is on hold at the office of Finance.

Please use those funds to transfer to my petition for reinstatement.

It appears that somehow the address for notification about the maintenance fee distribution was wrong and we never received any notification about the maintenance fee acceptance or rejections.

This expiration was inadvertent and not intentional. Evidence is so clear since the Office of Finance has been holding my maintenance fee for almost a year. Once you apply this 1255.00 please let me know what other fees I should pay to make sure the maintenance fee is completed and we are reinstated. I am not sure how this mix up occurred but we do not the patent reinstated.

I by mistake marked on the PDF petition to reinstate my patent status that I had a deposit account and that you should take the funds from that account. I thought since the Accounting office was holding this 1255.00 that it would be in a Deposit account. They just called me and told me that it is not in a deposit account but to merely state that the moneys are on hold in my name there in their office.

Thank you for your prompt response.
